A 1912 Titanic cover to Washington D.C. bearing 25c Sower tied 'Avignon 5 3 12', delivered to the White Star Line office where it received the TITANIC h/stamp. However, since the Titanic was not ready for her departure (ultimately departing to her doom on April 10th), this letter sailed with the RMS Olympic and bears a Washington MAR 18 1912 arrival strike. This is one of only 20 recorded covers from the original March 10th sailing and is, as such, an important item of maritime and Titanic postal history £500
